

Sen. Paul Sarlo's comments on Mayor James Cassella

“Mayor James Cassella appointed two corrupt lawyers in a row to serve as East Rutherford Borough Attorney. Both were already indicted when he hired them. Both were convicted of embezzling hundreds of thousands of dollars. The newspapers called them ‘mob connected’...”

Sen. Paul Sarlo

REMARKS PUBLISHED IN OCTOBER 2001

GARY VICCARO

Deserves to be our Mayor.

As Councilman, he demonstrated the courage to say NO to special interests & political power brokers

Examine Viccaro's voting record and make your own decision:

- When it came to Cassella's unnecessary spending and $35 million in added debt.
- When it came to creating a new $75 a year 'open space tax' on homeowners
- When Republicans reduced property tax assessments on two big developments owned by clients of the political power broker who helped Cassella get his pension-padding 'no show' job
- When Cassella presented a gimmick-laden budget with his election year tax cut that uses borrowed money to run 'government on a credit card'
- When Cassella wanted to give developer James Dematrikis a sweetheart deal

LAST BUT NOT LEAST

- When Cassella raised property taxes last year by 19 points

Viccaro voted NO.

Viccaro voted NO.

Viccaro voted NO.

Viccaro voted NO.

Viccaro voted NO.

Viccaro voted NO.

GARY VICCARO

STRONG ENOUGH TO SAY NO

STRONG ENOUGH TO BE MAYOR